

Electronics Line 3000's UK Subsidiary Awarded Independent Buyers Association Supplier of the Year for Second Year Running

Petach Tikva, Israel (October 23, 2008) - Electronics Line 3000 Ltd. (XETRA: ELN) today announces its UK subsidiary has been awarded the prestigious accolade of IBA Supplier of the Year, 2008.

The Independent Buyers Association (IBA), one of the UK's leading electrical wholesaler buying groups, held its trade show and Gala Awards Evening at the Reebok Stadium, where for the second year running, ESP - Electronics Line UK Ltd, was announced as IBA Supplier of the Year.

The IBA consists of well established electrical distributors, providing services to the electrical goods trade, commerce and the manufacturing industry. The main suppliers to the group are carefully assessed and scored by the members on every aspect of their trading relationship.

Andy Clements, CEO of ESP – Electronics Line UK commented: "Winning this coveted award for the second time is a great achievement. Receiving confirmation that we remain one cut above the rest, especially as this accolade is awarded by a group of highly regarded professionals, makes it special."

Amir Hayek, President and CEO of Electronics Line 3000 Ltd. Added: "We are very proud of our UK subsidiary. The industry doesn't stand still and we worked hard on developing our product and service offerings, and we see receiving the award as a strong confirmation of our efforts."
